DEPOSITS: The non-refundable reservation deposit is deducted from the total tuition. Placements not confirmed by this deposit will be opened to students on the waiting list after the date due. The school budget and staffing for the whole year are determined according to anticipated enrolment. Therefore the family is obligated to pay: (a) half the annual tuition if a student is withdrawn before October 1; or (b) the full year's tuition if the student is withdrawn on or after October 1. This includes families who are paying monthly, which means that post-dated cheques will be processed as they come due. Parents must read and understand the above information regarding payment of tuition, and agree to pay as stated above by the method of payment which they choose.

PLEASE NOTE: Tax Receipts for tuition will be issued for the portion pertaining to religious instruction and for the Capital Fund. Receipts for the academic year ending in June are provided at the end of February of the following year.
