PARENT & TEACHER CONFERENCES

Appointment forms will be distributed to students to take home to their parents tomorrow, so please keep an eye out for these important notices. A fifteen minute block is scheduled for each conference, so it is important that everyone keep an eye on the clock to arrive and conclude punctually.

PICTURE DAY TOMORROW – TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26

Students are reminded to be in top form for their portraits tomorrow by Mariola Photography. We look forward to seeing students at their finest.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHALLENGE – TLA SUCCESSES!

Congratulations to all four teams of students for their fine performances at the Sister Mary John Morriss Invitational event this past Saturday at St. Anthony of Padua school in Vancouver. Kudos especially to the teams of students below for their outstanding achievement on that day. Our next competition, The Monsignor Donald Neumann Championships will be held on November 20, 2021 at Corpus Christi School in Vancouver.

ALL HALLOWS EVE VIGIL AND ACTIVITIES

Staff and students alike look forward to an evening devoted to traditional Catholic devotions combined with a selection of exciting activities appropriate to the season on Friday, October 29, commencing at 6:00 PM and continuing through the night until Saturday at 6:00AM. We have nearly 40 students signed up to attend and take part in the activities that night.

ALL SOULS DAY DEVOTION

Students in Kindergarten through Grade Twelve will take part in our annual TLA trip to White Rock to pray for our departed loved ones at the Gardens of Gethsemani. Students will travel by school bus.

WALK – A – THON WIND–UP

We have extended the pledge collection to this coming Wednesday, October 27. The student prize day for pledge successes will be scheduled in the coming weeks. Students receive a draw ticket for every ten dollars of pledges that they collect and win prizes of cash, electronics, art supplies, sporting goods, and more!
